Aloha Enterprise Options

There are two versions of Aloha Enterprise – each designed to accommodate a user-specific set of criteria.

- Aloha Enterprise.com is an ASP enterprise management solution designed for foodservice companies that don't want the recurring costs for hardware and software maintenance and prefer to outsource this to another vendor.
- Aloha Enterprise Datacenter is best for foodservice companies with greater than 300 sites that are looking for an alternative to using a web-based ASP model and require a data center solution that can operate in their own environment.
